Standard Minor in History for Class of 2024 and after

Requirements:

1. Geographical Distribution

For the purposes of the major and minor requirements applicable to the class of 2024 and later, most courses fall into one of six areas: (1) Africa, (2) Asia, (3) Europe (4) Latin America & the Caribbean, (5) Middle East, (6) United States. Your seven History courses must include one course from at least three of the six areas.

2. Chronological Distribution

Your seven History courses must include, at a minimum, two pre-modern courses and two modern courses.

3. Limits and Exclusions

- a. At least four History courses must be taken in residence at Dartmouth College, one of them being HIST 96.
- b. HIST 7 (First-Year Seminar) and History 99 (Honors Thesis) may not be counted toward the minor.
- c. Students may not use more than two independent study courses (HIST 97) in satisfying the requirements of the minor.
- d. At most one course in the minor may be taken under the NRO.
- e. Minor GPA is figured on all History courses taken.
- f. The Department will consider approving transfer credits for History majors/minors and non-majors only for History courses taken at institutions with which Dartmouth College has institutional exchange programs.
- g. Only transfer students may receive credit for courses taken at other colleges or universities prior to matriculation at Dartmouth.

Enrollment in seminars is by instructor permission only. This permission is issued by the professor teaching the course. When completing this worksheet, students should contact the professors teaching the seminars they wish to take in order to inquire about the enrollment process and to be placed on the waitlist.
